Auction of cricket players

3382. SHRI BALAVANT ALIAS BAL APTE:
SHRI SHREEGOPAL VYAS:

Will the Minister of YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS be pleased to state:

whether the auction of cricketers has raised or decreased the honour of the country;

whether the transaction of the money is factual or imaginary; and the extent of interference of Government in mis regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS (DR. M.S. GILL): (a) to (c) According to the Board of Control for Cricket in India (BCCI), the auction process was adopted to facilitate the franchisees to select their teams in the Indian Premier League (IPL). An open bidding process was adopted for this purpose resulting in an assured payment to the players, backed by a legally enforceable agreement between the players and franchisees. Such practices do prevail internationally. The BCCI is an autonomous body and the Government has no role in the launch and conduct of IPL, or its management processes.
